STRIKING SILK MEN

May Tie Up the Whole Business.

WAGES REDUCED 40 PER CENT

Coal Miners' Organization Make a Move for Another Great Strike.

New York, Feb. 18.—The Herald says: Two meetings just held by the silk workers of Paterson are likely to change the entire silk situation. Every mill in the city was represented and resolutions were adopted intended to force the manufacturers to pay more wages just as soon as they begin to fill the new orders that are being taken.

Wages paid now are said to be from 30 to 40 per cent. lower than the scale agreed upon by the manufacturers after the great strike of 1894. The weavers are sanguine that most of the manufacturers will grant a raise to begin with and that no general strike will ensue.

Representatives of the employees of the silk mills in Scranton, Pa., have arrived in Paterson to induce the Paterson weavers not to work on any of the goods that the Scranton firm is sending from its mill to have finished in the Paterson mill.

A meeting of the weavers in Paterson will be held tomorrow and action on the request of the Scranton strikers will be considered. The weavers say that it will be granted. This would practically mean a general tie-up in Paterson and working in conjunction with the weavers in Pennsylvania would cause the biggest silk strike that the country ever knew.

Coal Strike Intensified.
New York, Feb. 18.—President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers has issued a call joint convention of the anthracite coal operators and miners at Hazleton, March 12, says a Wilkes-Barre dispatch to the World.

Consultation free. If you have any physical ailments it will do you good to call and have a little chat with the doctor.

CARRIE NATION

Threatens the Saloons of all Cities.

ORGANIZING AN ARMY OF HER FOLLOWERS

A Band of 500 Men and Women Do Business on Sunday.

New York, Feb. 18.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, in a letter to the editor of Leslie's Weekly says:

"A saloon has no right in any place. I will smash the saloons in New York, Milwaukee, St. Louis and Chicago, just as in Kansas. But I must clean up my own house before I dare say to my neighbors 'Can tell you how to clean yours.'"

"He breaks all the sins of the decalogue who sells a glass of rum. The motive which leads him to put his stumbling block in the way of his brother is inspired by a spirit which violates all law."

"The time for the saloon to go has come. We are organizing an army of home defenders which demands that the murder shop close or be closed by law. Otherwise, we destroy this destroyer by means of anything that will annul this in a severe word, but nothing can convey that thought so forcefully as the results. This army of home defenders is doing what Israel did as recorded in II Chronicles, XXXI, 1. We attack nothing but that which is dangerous to humanity and heaven."

"This is one of the greatest wars—against flesh and blood, but against principalities. Against spiritual wickedness in high places. Are weapons not against the life, but mighty in the pulling down of strongholds? Yes, against the prince of the power of the air, which worketh in the children of disobedience."

"We propose to organize an army of true mothers who are physically able and willing to join in a crusade to drive out the murderers by destroying their instruments. We do not desire or intend to injure the person of any one. We, in self defense, go out from our home to the rescue of children who are the victims of this traffic."

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Feb. 18.—Everything is quiet here this morning after the excitement of yesterday. After a conference with her comrades last night, Mrs. Nation decided to remain quiet for the present. The home defenders are keeping close watch on joints and drug stores, and should they find any evidence of the prohibitory law being violated, they will continue the attacks.

Mrs. Nation was arrested this morning on a peace warrant sworn out by the Meeser coal storage company. Mrs. Nation called out from the Statehouse grounds at the head of 500 men and women, all armed with hatchets, and moved on the joints of the city. Nobody knew but Mrs. Nation what the plans of raiding were to be. In the crowd were a large number of students of Washburn College, some of the ministers of the city and a number of professional and business men. The crowd marched in perfect military order. There was no excitement, as the men and women were following their recognized leader, whom they trusted implicitly.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Feb. 18.—As the result of a mass meeting held at Herington, Arkansas City, Hutchinson, Winfield and Wellington, joint keepers have been notified to close their places and remove goods. Failure to do so will be followed by raids. At Lawrence today a number of women destroyed a lot of liquor in the streets.

Another Yacht Builder.
St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 18.—H. Clay Pierce of this city will visit with the New York millionaires in the sport of yachting. He has arranged for the building of a craft which will be surpassed in size only by the Vanderbilt yacht, and in cost and magnificence by none. Mr. Pierce is very secretive about his plans in regard to his debut into the field of yachting. It is said by his friends, however, that he will probably join some New York club, and that his present plans involve a long stay in New York each year.

VON WALTHERZE IS CLEARING CHI LI

Chaffee and Conger to Take No Part.

BERLIN, Feb. 18.—The Cologne Gazette publishes a dispatch from Pekin, which explains that Field Marshal Von Waltherze's new expedition is intended to finally clear the Province of Chi Li of Chinese soldiers and produce a wholesome dread among the Chinese. The German commissary department has ordered a thousand transport wagons to be ready in 18 days.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—A special to the Post from Washington, says: Positive orders were issued today to General Chaffee, commanding the United States troops in China, not to Waltherze and the Allied troops.

General Chaffee is instructed to take no part in the contemplated expedition to Si Mingan Fu, while Minister Conger is instructed not to join in any agreement that makes for her hostilities.

OLD MAN DROWNED AT JEFFERSON

A. B. Crooks, a man aged 55 years, who lives on the low ground across the river from Jefferson adjoining the picnic grounds is believed to be drowned in the flood that has completely surrounded his cabin. Parties entered his home Sunday and found all his personal effects piled up on the bed and the occupant gone. Later his pony all saddled was found, and it is believed he attempted to ride to higher ground and was swept away by the current, as the flood completely covers his premises. He had not been seen for several days.

TIRE OF LIFE AND LET HIS BLOOD

A resident of St. Paul, this county, whose correct name was not learned, attempted suicide on Sunday by cutting his wrist in a frightful manner but prompt attendance saved his life. ## GERMAN ATROCITIES

Worst of all the Allied Forces

REIGN OF TERROR EXTANT IN CHINA

Foreigners Conducting a Veritable Man Hunt in China.

New York, Feb. 18.—George Lynch, an English war correspondent, who saw service in Cuba and South Africa and was then commissioned by two London papers to accompany the allied forces on the march to Pekin, writes to the Herald a long description of the terrible atrocities by the allies with which the campaign was accompanied. Mr. Lynch personally vouches for the accuracy of the facts he relates. He says:

"But it is to the Germans that we must award the laurels of outrage in this campaign. They arrived late for the hunt—the man hunt, or man woman and child hunt. There was something particularly cold blooded about their proceedings. They arrived when the country ought to have been settling down, to avenge the murder of their minister and to carry out the mandate of their Kaiser."

"After marching into Pekin, leaving their path stained with the blood of hundreds of innocent people, who had just ventured to return to their homes, the Germans, established a military reign of terror in their section of the city. Every day there were executions. One day sixty eight were shot. They did not hesitate to resort to Oriental methods for the purpose of extracting evidence from their witnesses. The treatment of their prisoners, as I can personally testify, from what I saw, was most brutal."

Mr. Lynch takes the missionaries to task for their looting. Further of his says:

"The policy of the United States throughout this whole Chinese business has, to my mind, been altogether admirable. I recollect being with Gen. Chaffee the day after the relief. He said to me:

"We had to come right up to relieve these people in the legations and now the sooner we got out and go back home the better pleased I shall be."

"This appears to me the right policy, not alone for the U. S. but for all the rest of the powers."

Mr. Lynch thinks the Chinese spirit of rebellion is still very active and will be reviewed in the spring.

A TRAIN WRECK

Caused By a Washout in Nevada

SIX KILLED AND SIX WOUNDED

Miraculous Escape of Engineer, Conductor and Other Train Men.

WINNEMCCA, NEV., Feb. 18.—The east-bound overland limited Southern Pacific train officially known as No. 2, was wrecked at a point 27 miles west of this place. While running at a speed of fifty miles an hour, the train went into a washed out culvert and the result was the worst wreck known on this division of the road. Six persons were killed and six injured.

The disaster occurred at a point where an embankment 30 feet high crosses a ravine. Melting snow from the mountains caused a heavy rush of water, which broke through the embankment some time during the night. The wash-out was about 75 feet in width, and into the raging torrent the ill-fated train plunged without warning. The engine nearly cleared the break before the rails gave way, the tender falling back. The mail car and composite car followed into chasm, the composite car telescoping the first of the Pullman sleepers nearly half its length. Two sleepers and the dining car remained on the track.

Mr. and Mrs. Bissinger and their daughter were in a drawing room in the forward end of the wrecked Pullman. Mr. and Mrs. Bissinger were killed, while their daughter, occupying the berth above them was but slightly injured. She was taken out through an opening in the roof of the roof of the car. Mr. Conter was killed outright. His body was frightfully mangled. Fireman Whittaker died at his post. His body is in a mass of wreckage, from which, up to last evening the rescuers were unable to extricate it.

The bodies of two men, evidently tramps, who were stealing a ride are also in the wreckage.

The escape of Engineer Abbey was miraculous. He was thrown through the window of the cab and was only slightly hurt. Conductor Markle, brakeman Reeves and the train barber were in the composite car. The brakeman jumped through a window and landed in about four feet of water. The conductor and barber crawled through a hole in the roof of the wrecked car. How mail clerks Behnyer and Carin escaped with their lives is an enigma to all who witnessed the position of the shattered cars. Train No. 4, the east-bound express was following the limited train very closely, and the rear brakeman of the latter had only a few minutes in which to flag No. 4, and prevent a rear end collision.

At 7:30 a. m. a special train left this place for the scene of the wreck, carrying doctors and nurses, and the injured were given every attention possible, being taken to the hotel at Mill City, the nearest station. The dead and injured later were taken back to Winnemucca on a special train and will be carried on to San Francisco.

It will be two or three days before the track can be put in condition so that the running of trains may be resumed. It will be necessary first to build a trestle across the chasm in which the wrecked cars are lying.
